

TERM TIME SCHOOL LEAVE INFORMATION FOR PARENTS

IMPORTANT: Please read carefully the information below.

As a parent/carer, you can demonstrate your commitment to your child's education by, whenever possible, taking your holidays during school holidays.

THE FACTS	THE LAW
We recognise that it is often expensive to take a holiday during school breaks and that is why some parents may ask for term-time leave for their child. However, it is important that parents carefully consider the implications of taking their child out of school during term time. Research suggests that children who are taken out of school may never catch up on course work they have missed. This may affect test results and can be particularly harmful if the child is studying for final year examinations. Children who struggle with English or Mathematics may also find it even harder to cope when they return to school, while younger children may find it difficult to renew friendships with their classmates. WHAT YOU SHOULD CONSIDER There are times during a school year when a child may experience particular problems because of term-time leave such as:- <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Closeness to exams or tests. [Standard Attainment Tests in year two, six and nine.] • During GCSE, and other examination courses. • During the first year at a new school. • At the beginning of a new school term. If the school refuses a request for term-time leave and the child is still taken out of school, this will be recorded as unauthorised absence and noted on the child's record.	The law does not say that parents have an automatic right to take their child out of school for holidays during term-time. However, in exceptional circumstances school may authorise, in advance, a request for a period of leave of up to ten days in any year. The request for leave must come from a parent with whom the child normally resides, and must be for the purpose of an annual family holiday. If a child then stays away from school for more than the authorised period this must be recorded as unauthorised absence and could be quoted in a prosecution for poor attendance. If the child is away from school for a total of four weeks or more, the school may have to take the child off roll unless there is a good reason for the continued absence, such as illness. In these circumstance it is up to the parent to inform the school as once removed from roll, there is no guarantee that the child will regain a place at the same school.
Please contact your child's headteacher if you wish to discuss this issue. Children should attend school for 190 days each year, and every day is important. Please help them not to miss any of this valuable time. We hope that when you have read this leaflet you will consider that your child's education it too important to take holidays during term time.

REQUEST FOR AUTHORISATION FOR

SCHOOL CHILD'S HOLIDAY DURING TERM TIME

NOTES TO PARENTS/CARERS

The law does not grant parents an automatic right to take their child out of school for holidays during term time. You must apply for permission in advance and the request for leave must come from a parent with whom the child normally lives, and must be for the purpose of an annual family holiday.

When deciding whether to allow term time leave the school will consider:-

- The time and duration of the leave
- Your child's record of attendance
- Learning that will be missed

If the school refuses your request and the child is still taken out of school, this will be recorded as an unauthorised absence and noted on your child's record.
